LATEST ARRIVALS

THE LACROSSE 1997 FAMILY GREW—gently, and with the quiet beauty of things done well. Three new fragrances joined the collection last season: each one different, yet sharing that unmistakable air of something meant to stay.

Scents that don't follow trends or beg for attention... but quietly transform a space with their natural, effortless charm. A fresh breeze, a grounding base, a note that lingers in the air like a good conversation.

They're here now. And they smell like home.

The scented candles from Lacrosse 1997 are little pieces of everyday calm. With 200 grams of delicately fragranced wax, each one is crafted to accompany those moments when time slows down—a quiet afternoon, a thoughtfully set table, a room that gently asks you to stay a little longer.

But it's not just their scent that draws you in—it's also the colour palette, designed to blend seamlessly into your home, as if it had always belonged there. Soft, earthy, rich tones with that quiet elegance that doesn't seek the spotlight, but finds it anyway. Each colour suggests a different mood, a quiet intention, a way of being in the space.

Lacrosse 1997 doesn't just make candles. It creates objects that glow, scent, and—without saying a word—tell a story.

200 g - 7.05 oz

The diffusers from Lacrosse 1997 offer a gentle, steady, and natural way to scent your space. Nothing forced, nothing loud—just fragrance that unfolds slowly, calmly, through natural rattan reeds, always aiming for the right balance between subtlety and presence.

Each diffuser is finished with a wooden collar, a small detail that adds warmth and turns a simple gesture into something beautiful. Because what's useful can also move you. And because when something is well made, it needs no extra flourish.

Available in two sizes: 100 ml, perfect for smaller corners or first-time discovery. And 200 ml, for those who want it always close, without limits.

An object that doesn't intrude, but gently stays.
Quiet, delicate, constant.

100 ml - 3.38 fl oz | 200 ml - 6.76 fl oz

The refill for Lacrosse 1997 diffusers is designed so your favorite scent never has to leave.

When the fragrance starts to fade, it's not the end—just a gentle pause before continuing the story. With the 250 ml refill, you can breathe new life into your diffuser without changing a thing. Same bottle, same soul—just a quiet renewal.

Pour the new fragrance carefully, replace the reeds if you wish, and let the scent unfurl slowly, naturally, as it always has. No rush, no fuss—just the steady, invisible presence that makes a house feel like home.

Choosing a refill is a small, conscious act: a way of saying that what you have is enough, that beauty can last, and that simplicity, when cared for, becomes extraordinary.

Because sometimes, the best things don't need to be replaced. They just need to be loved a little longer.

The 500 ml Home Spray from Lacrosse 1997 is an invitation to transform the moment. A simple gesture, almost automatic—a click, a cloud of fragrance—and suddenly, the space shifts. Time slows down. Something feels more yours.

Created for those who don't wait for scent to arrive, but call it in when it's needed: after airing out a room, before guests arrive, just before a nap, or as a quiet ritual before lighting a candle.

The 500 ml format is no accident—it's made to last, to be used generously and without hesitation. Spray it into the air and let the fragrance settle gently into the space, filling it without overwhelming. An immediate presence, yet a subtle one. A scent that appears when you ask for it, and stays just long enough.

Because some moments need to be fragranced right away.
And others simply appreciate it.
This spray is for all of them.

The perfumed liquid for Lacrosse 1997 catalytic lamps doesn't just clean the air. It transforms it. It purifies, perfumes, and gives your space a new kind of breath—like opening the windows on a perfect day. Like taking a deep breath and beginning again.

Its formula is designed to be both effective and gentle, eliminating unwanted odors while diffusing a steady, almost magical scent that settles into the room with presence but never overwhelms. It's fragrance, yes—but also freshness. It's presence, but also peace.

The 500 ml format is made to last for weeks, without rush. Because when something works, you want it to stay. And because some rituals, once they become yours, are hard to let go.

Simply fill your catalytic lamp, light the wick, let the flame burn for a few minutes... then blow it out. The lamp takes care of the rest. Silent. Elegant. Powerful.

The new Lacrosse 1997 Car & Textile Spray is made for movement—between spaces, fabrics, and moments. A few sprays are enough to refresh a car interior, soften clothing, or bring new life to curtains, linens, and everyday textiles.

Light, versatile, and easy to use, the formula settles gently into fabric and air, leaving behind a clean, balanced scent.

It's made for the in-between spaces: the drive before a long day, freshly folded laundry, the room you return to at night. Wherever life happens, this spray moves with it.

Use it when you need clarity, comfort, or a subtle reset. Small gestures that shape how a space feels, without announcing themselves.

Because some fragrances aren't meant to stay in one place - they follow you. And this spray is made to do just that: to fine-tune your surroundings, wherever you are.
